

Autobiography Acrostic

Write your name down the left side of this page, and use the letters to begin each line, saying something about yourself. It can be true, but it doesn't have to be. You can challenge yourself to write a whole poem that isn't true if you want to.

One nice thing about this kind of poem is that you can make it as long or as short as you want to, by using just your first name, or your full name. I usually skip a line between first, middle, and last names.

(use an extra page if you have a long name)
